

"trio des(s)ert" with Dimitra Daskalaki and Marina Christodoulaki

the new production of Fysalida Dance (c) 2017 will premiere at the TEDxAUEB 2017 | Mosaic Gazi-Athens on 18 March at 17:30

Through a mosaic of dance patterns, three different bodies are mixed with the ingredients of a recipe in a bowl full of feelings, underlining with humor how a common action can bring together different entities.

Besides ... at the end of the day, don't we all want to be free, happy and left with a sweet taste on the lips?

And finally, who makes the difference?

and which is the most "essential" element for each of us?

the ingredients?

the action?

the result?

or following a common path?
